DELUXE PERU: LIMA, CUSCO & MACHU PICCHU

July 1-8, 2021

Machu Picchu is on everyone's Bucket List. This is the home of the mystical Incas that reigned over the Andes when the Spanish conquistadors arrived. But beyond Machu Picchu, Peru is a magical destination for many reasons. It has an incredible modern culinary scene that you can discover in Lima and throughout this trip. Cusco offers a glimpse into the Golden Age of exploration and an opportunity to purchase amazing handicrafts. And who doesn't want to ride on the luxurious Hiram Bingham train and enjoy a scrumptious brunch. We have crafted this trip to be affordable luxury. Check off one more place on that Bucket List and join us!

ITINERARY

Day 1 – Depart USA to Lima

Thu, Jul 1, 2021

Arrive Lima (LIM) on any regularly scheduled flight. Transfer to the AC Hotel by Marriott Miraflores.

Hotel: AC Hotel by Marriott Miraflores

Room: Deluxe City View

Meals: None

Day 2 – Lima

Fri, Jul 2

After breakfast, a city tour begins with a visit to the Plaza Mayor, the official center of the city and the original site where Lima was founded by Francisco Pizarro on January 18, 1535. It is also a World Heritage site. From the historic center, drive across modern Lima for a visit to the Larco Herrera Museum, an extensive private collection of pre-Incan ceramics – probably the largest collection of its kind in the world. Lunch at Café del Museo Restaurant. The afternoon and evening are at your leisure to further explore Lima. This evening we will host our Welcome Dinner at one of Lima's best restaurants.

Hotel: AC Hotel by Marriott Miraflores

Room: Deluxe City View

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Day 3 – Lima – Cusco – The Sacred Valley

Sat, Jul 3

Transfer to the airport for our domestic flight to Cusco. Upon arrival in Cusco, an ancient Andean community and former capital of the Inca Empire, we stop for lunch at Calle del Medio Restaurant. After lunch we drive to The Sacred Valley, stopping en-route to visit Awanankancha, a center where South American 'Cameloids' (varied members of the camel genus) – Llamas, Alpacas, Guanacos, and Vicunas – are bred.

Continue on to the Inkary Museum, created by an inspired group of artists and archaeologists introducing today's Peruvian youth to the pre-Columbian cultures of Peru. Check-in at the Tambo del Inka Luxury Collection Hotel. Overnight in The Sacred Valley.

July 1-8, 2021

Hotel: Tambo del Inka Luxury Collection Hotel

Room: Deluxe Terrace

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Day 4 – The Sacred Valley

Sun, Jul 4

Today we visit the Andean Highlands where we meet the Quechua-speaking farmers and weavers of this rural Andean community, and experience Incan lifestyles and traditions. Explore the magical and inspiring world of Quechua Highlanders, learning how traditional people live and work today in the Andean countryside. Participate in the daily activities of Chivay village “...the village of beautiful flowers”, roaming its quiet streets lined with Spanish Colonial buildings, pausing at local craft shops displaying multi-colored yarns, weaving looms and finished woven garments adorned with ancient Incan designs. Accompanied by the music of flutes and drums, our Quechuan hosts perform age-old terraced-farming techniques, blessing their earth, their animals, and the newly plowed land. Lunch will be served at Rancho Wayra. A spectacular equestrian exhibition - The Paso Horses - will impress with their elegance and synchronized prancing to the rhythm of live Marinera music.

After lunch, continue on to the Hotel. Overnight in The Sacred Valley.

Hotel: Tambo del Inka Luxury Collection Hotel

Room: Deluxe Terrace

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Day 5 – Machu Picchu

Mon, Jul 5

Today visit the massive fortress of Ollantaytambo. The fortress, a formidable stone structure that climbs massive terraces reaching the top of a high peak, was the valley’s main defense against the Antis and was the site of the Incas’ greatest victory against the Spanish during the wars of conquest. Constructed of rose-colored granite, this huge installation was once a thriving complex of baths, temples and military barracks. It is a short walk to the station to board the Hiram Bingham train to Machu Picchu. Brunch is served on board. Arrival and short walk to the station to take the bus to Machu Picchu Citadel.

With our guide, explore the incredible ruins of this once indomitable city, assembled sans the use of modern machinery and held in place for centuries without the aid of any mortar. After our visit we stop for tea at the Sanctuary Lodge. Afterwards, return to the town of Aguas Calientes to check in to the Inkaterra Machu Picchu Pueblo Hotel.

Dinner at the hotel.

Hotel: Inkaterra Machu Picchu Pueblo Hotel

Room: Superior

Meals: Breakfast, Brunch, Dinner

Day 6 – Machu Picchu – Cusco

Tue, Jul 6

Morning at leisure. This morning, you will have the opportunity to hike up the Huayna Picchu (additional cost) – the highest mountain which is actually part of the ruins, from where you are afforded excellent views of the surrounding area, as well as a unique view of the famous ‘lost city’, (approx 2.5 hours). Or explore the grounds of our hotel where there are many wonders to discover, such as the rare orchid tour.

DELUXE PERU: LIMA, CUSCO & MACHU PICCHU

July 1-8, 2021

In the afternoon, board the Vistadome train back to Cusco city. Once in Cusco, we transfer to our Palacio del Inka Luxury Collection Hotel.

Hotel: Palacio del Inka Luxury Collection

Room: Classic

Meals: Breakfast

Day 7 – Cusco

Wed, Jul 7

This morning, visit Cusco Cathedral, located on the Plaza de Armas. Completed in 1654, almost one hundred years after construction began, it is dubbed one the most beautiful churches in the Americas, reflecting Gothic, Renaissance, and Baroque styles. Another beautiful church is Santo Domingo, a 16th-century Dominican Church and Convent built on the foundations of the Incan Koricancha ("The Sun Temple" or "Place of Gold") - an astronomical observatory and religious temple for worship of the sun - with its outer walls covered in sheets of gold. Unfortunately, it was ransacked and destroyed by Spanish conquistadors, with Cusco Cathedral erected from original pieces of Incan stonework. Visit Sacsayhuamán, an ancient fortress and impressive example of Incan military architecture, is the final site of the greatest battle between the invading Spanish and the defending Incas. On the return to Cusco, see Qenqo ("The Labyrinth"), an Incan shrine dedicated to the Earth Mother, and Puka-Pukara, a limestone military construction with intricately carved depictions of mythical beings and dark, winding underground passages. Afternoon at leisure to explore the city on your own. Farewell dinner in Cusco.

Hotel: Palacio del Inka Luxury Collection

Room: Classic

Meals: Breakfast, Dinner

DAY 8 – Cusco – Lima – USA

Thu, Jul 8

Transfer to the airport to board your domestic flight back to Lima. We will have day rooms at the Costa del Sol Wyndham Hotel while we await our return flights to the USA.

Hotel: Costa del Sol Wyndham Hotel

Room: Standard

TRAVEL PREP

INTERNATIONAL AIRFARE

American, Avianca, Lan and JetBlue are among airlines that can be used to book international airfare for this tour. We recommend booking at least 7 months in advance if you want to use Frequent Flyer Miles or the American Express Platinum card 2-4-1 program. Coda Tours can assist you with your international air booking in Business or Coach class (First Class is rare nowadays on international flights, but if available, we can quote it.) Please ask us to quote for you. We often have favorable rates. There is a standard $35 per ticket ticketing for this service.

INTRA-TOUR AIRFARE

Intra-tour flights will be booked and issued through Coda Tours. Pricing is quoted separately under RATES. Only economy class will be booked. If you wish to have a quote for Business class on these flights, please inquire.

VISAS & VACCINES

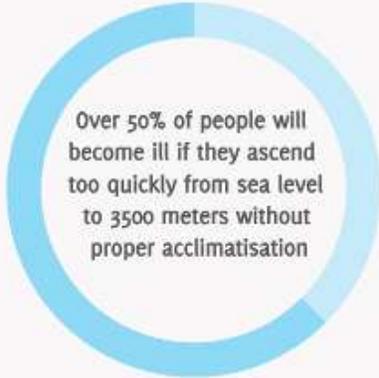

A valid passport is required for international travel and must be valid for 6 months after the return date of travel and must have at least two blank pages. No visa is required for entry into Peru for US and Canadian passport holders.

ALTITUDE IN PERU - Because much of the country's highlands are situated more than 10,000 feet above sea level, travelers flying in from lower altitudes can experience symptoms similar to that of a bad hangover, making the first few days in Peru uncomfortable. We do spend our first days at lower altitude to acclimate.

While unpleasant, altitude sickness shouldn't put you off from traveling to Peru. Fortunately for most people, they only feel sluggish for a couple of days until their body has acclimatized, making it more of an inconvenience than a serious concern. Even so, before heading to Peru we recommend familiarizing yourself with the facts, risks and symptoms associated with altitude sickness and what to do if you fall ill during your travels. See our chart below. (If reading on the website, you will see the chart in the downloadable PDF.) Please note that most people do not experience any altitude sickness at all.

| How To Deal With Altitude Sickness | |
|--|---|
| <h3>What is Altitude Sickness?</h3> Altitude sickness is an illness that ranges from a mild headache and tiredness to a life-threatening build-up of fluid in the lungs or brain at high altitudes  | <h3>What Causes Altitude Sickness?</h3> Altitude sickness is caused by low levels of oxygen at very high altitudes. Less oxygen in the blood stream means less oxygen getting into your cells, causing people who ascend too rapidly to develop altitude sickness No matter your age, sex, level of fitness, or previous experience at high elevations, altitude sickness can strike anyone at any time |
| <h3>Symptoms of Altitude Sickness</h3> <ul style="list-style-type: none">- shortness of breath- headache, nausea- lethargy- loss of appetite- difficulty sleeping- rapid heart beat- light-headedness- pins and needles  Not paying attention to your body and the symptoms of altitude sickness can lead to more serious health affects |  Over 50% of people will become ill if they ascend too quickly from sea level to 3500 meters without proper acclimatisation |
| <h3>Prevention of Altitude Sickness</h3>  <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Plan your ascent- Don't overexert yourself- Listen to your body- Stay properly hydrated- Avoid alcohol and cigarettes- Eat small amounts regularly- Protect yourself from the sun | <h3>How to Acclimatize</h3>  <ul style="list-style-type: none">- If possible, start at a lower altitude and work your way up slowly- Plan a couple of rest days allowing your body time to adapt to the higher altitudes- Above 3000 meters, don't increase your sleeping elevation more than 300 meters for each night |
| <h3>Treatment of Altitude Sickness</h3> <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Descend to a lower elevation until symptoms abate- Rest, limit activity & drink plenty of fluids- Increase your oxygen intake with bottled oxygen- Take Acetazolamide or Ibuprofen to reduce symptoms | Altitude sickness does not discriminate and can be life-threatening if not treated properly |

PACKING & WEATHER

Coda trips are casual at all times. There is no need for a jacket or tie unless you personally opt to dine at a fine restaurant requiring formal dress. We do not book these restaurants for our group experiences. Pack for a variety of weather. Bring a light jacket or sweater. Jeans, khakis and shorts are fine for daily wear. Comfortable shoes are a must. All hotels offer laundry service, but it can be expensive.

Temperatures will vary on this trip from high 60's during the day to the mid-40's at night. Altitudes to consider will be in Cusco at 11,152 feet and Machu Picchu at 7,972 feet.

MINIMUMS

All departures are guaranteed on a minimum number of participants. A Coda Tour Manager will accompany a tour also based on a minimum number of participants. This tour can be operated as a Private Tour, can be customized and repriced based on a final itinerary. Rates are based on a minimum participation, if the minimum is not met, rates may need to be revised.

PRE-DEPARTURE INFORMATION

A complete portfolio of pre-departure information will be mailed to you approximately three weeks prior to departure.
